RE: Burson-Marsteller Political Action Committee, C00201863

Dear Mr. Evans:

As you know, in response to your letter of September 14, 1994, we filed an amended report for the July Quarterly Report (4/1/94-6/30/94). In the course of amending our report, we discovered an error dating back to our April Quarterly Report (1/1-94 to 3/31/94) with respect to our "Cash on Hand". As a consequence of this error, our summary sheets for the April and July Quarterly Reports were in error as well. Needless to say, had this error not been discovered, it would have been carried forward in the October Quarterly Report (7/1/94-9/30/94). However, the October Quarterly Report, a copy of which is enclosed for your complete information, reflects the correct "Cash on Hand". Consequently, we have enclosed with this letter a second amended July Quarterly Report as well as an amended report for the April Quarterly Report.

In addition to the corrected "Cash on Hand" and related "Summary Sheets", we also have amended the two referenced Quarterly Reports to correct other errors we found.

First, in reviewing the April Quarterly Report, we discovered that the report contained "Itemized Receipts" (or, contributions to the PAC) which had been reported in the 1993 Year-End Report and which should not have been included in the April Quarterly Report. Properly, these "Itemized Receipts" have been deleted from this amended report since there were previously reported.

Second, in the same report, we did not list the address for "Jim Hart for Congress"; that address is included. We also have corrected the addresses and committee names for several of the contributions made.

Third, bank account charges from Riggs National Bank have been
